

What is your name?

Mr Sibu Dladla - Fashion Designer, brand owner and Events company owner

LinkedIn

How do you find out what inspires you?

I'm generally inspired by life and contemporary pop culture, history, architecture, world cultures, music and more. I'm normally very curious in nature.

What advice would you give to the new generation of designers?

Well to work a in a circular way as the world need for more sustainable brands, work with other designers to achieve common aims and objectives.